EXHIBITOR TESTIMONIALS

It is a great organization and has produced quality candidates who are motivated to transition to their civilian career.

Great experience. Variety of applicants attended the military fair.

Lots of candidates participated. Will be attending a few more.

Working with the military, you have a large variety of quality personnel to choose from from all over. The event was well organized and structured very friendly.

I would definitely recommend it.

I highly recommend attending this job fair. Lots of companies are interested in hiring vets for their discipline and process driven mentality.

Good set up and the quality and the experience of the candidates is great. There was nothing that I did not like.

If you are looking for prior military experience, this is good. They are super organized and advertise well.

Great opportunity to make contact with high-quality candidates.

Excellent facility, awesome help on site, and great candidates.

JOB SEEKER TESTIMONIALS

It is a great chance to network.

There are opportunities out there.

Excellent resource and platform for employment information.

It is totally worth it.

Great resources to learn about.

Come out and see who is there and what opportunities they have to offer.

Very good event for veterans.

Great resource for those looking for work.

It's a great opportunity to see and network with different people.

It is worth participating.

It's a great way to gain contacts.

Everyone was friendly and the event was organized.

It was a great experience.
