EXHIBITOR TESTIMONIALS

This was a wonderful event with a large group of well-rounded attendees. The venue location was an easy in and out with plenty of parking. The table and chairs provided were comfortable for the few moments we could take a moment to sit-down as this was a busy event! The vendor food and beverage offering were also well done! Thank you!

I loved the easy access to and from the venue.

Very professional event and supportive staff.

We always have a great turnout and a great interaction with constituents at RM's veterans career fair at Charlotte, so I have referred this program to other institutions and other departments on our University's campus.

We appreciate the structure and timing of these events. The candidates who attend are also fantastic to speak with and are some of the most engaged, driven individuals I have the pleasure to encounter throughout my recruitment season.

This was a well-organized and published event that attracted a well-rounded group of attendees.

If you have the funding available and wish to reach a fantastic audience of qualified, motivated veterans and active military prospects, this is the fair to invest in.

Great event!

Very impressive. Successful event and the on-site support was fantastic. Always a good event.

The event was well-organized and provided a great platform to share information about our organization. Also the layout and flow of the event allowed for meaningful conversations. The staff was welcoming and helpful throughout the day.

JOB SEEKER TESTIMONIALS

Events like these allow you to meet employers in a low stress environment, and have discussions with potential employers without the resume submittal and rejection cycle.

There were a bunch of employers with great opportunities that I wouldn't have otherwise considered.

These events are very helpful.

Good vendors that interact and don't just say "go to our "website" .

There was a great mix of recruiters and you are likely to find an opportunity that suits you.

I brought a fellow veteran due to the success of my first event that I attended.

I recommend going to the event to explore job opportunities.

It's an excellent opportunity to check out a wide range of fields for employment.

Well worth the time -- a variety of career field organizations are present. Professionally established.

Great way to network and secure contacts within the organization you want to apply to.

Everyone was very helpful.

It's better than doing it on-line because you're able to connect directly with recruiters.

Go and network. See what's available in different areas. A lot of good information.

Simply put, this event is EXCELLENT! There is a wide range of employers SPECIFICALLY LOOKING FOR VETERANS! Several include training leading to high paying jobs ranging from mechanical to IT & cybersecurity! There is NO OTHER EVENT EVEN CLOSE!
