EXHIBITOR TESTIMONIALS

Great ROI and quality of candidates! Good communication pre-event. Easy access. Manageable size. We like the access to all registrants post event.

The event was run very well. The quality of participants was exceptional. RecruitMilitary did a great job organizing and ensuring each vendor was well taken care of.

It was a good event. Great participation and contacts.

The event was incredible. It was well organized, good venue, amazing accommodations, and supports veterans like myself.

It was a great way to get our company out there as a national employer. I saw no issues or room for improvement. I look forward to attending the San Antonio event.

The event featured many employers with a passion for hiring veterans and spouses. RecruitMilitary and DAV go out of their way to set the stage for veterans to be successful in their career search.

Overall great experience. The event was a smooth process and the RM team was very professional and attentive.

This is an awesome experience and a great way to expand our outreach to veterans.

Great event to build a network and meet people with a mission to serve.

Good participation and the QR codes helps greatly.

Everything was great. It was a wonderful event. Well put together and lots of community involvement.

From pre-event to post event, the whole process was seamless.

JOB SEEKER TESTIMONIALS

Very solid event. Well put together and very effective.

There were a lot of vendors and the recruiters were enthusiastic to find new talent.

Check it out!

It is worth it. Veterans should go due the variety of vendors.

I highly recommend attending the RM veteran job fairs. They're incredibly valuable networking opportunities, even as military spouses. Many employers specifically understand the unique challenges we face with frequent moves, deployments, and the need for flexible work arrangements. Plus, the atmosphere is much more welcoming than typical job fairs because everyone understands the military community.

Go to the event! There were good job prospects.

This is the greatest one stop job fair with all the bells and whistles!!

Excellent event. Great, inviting environment, with a diverse set of employers.

This is a fantastic opportunity for networking, learning about different companies, and connecting with recruiters.

It's a good experience to practice impromptu interviewing. There are a wide variety of companies and schools with opportunities not advertised on their website.

You have a lot of options to secure a job. Definitely go.

100% follow the preliminary steps and attend. It's for veterans by veterans.

Great opportunity to find a job. Great networking.
