EXHIBITOR TESTIMONIALS

The communication and support through the process was very helpful!

Great way to connect with veteran talent.

I like these events because they are targeting current and former military personnel. We are looking for individuals who want a law enforcement career, which is very difficult to do. These are great events and employers meet a lot of great candidates.

It was well set up and the candidates were great.

Great people, super supportive of veterans. The event had great vendors!

Its a great event!

Great opportunity for those candidates to be matched up with the right employers.

You all are amazing to work with. Everything is made easy with you.

Solid candidate quality at every event in every city I've attended. Events are well run but most importantly, the candidate quality is exceptional.

This event is definitely a great opportunity for any line of business looking for well rounded individuals.

We find good candidates and have hired half a dozen from these fairs.

Good candidates with lots of experience. Great job! Looking forward to another one.

Event was well set up and run. Staff was supportive and personable. Candidates were engaged. Overall a good experience.

Good events to meet local talent / spread brand awareness. Set up very well.

JOB SEEKER TESTIMONIALS

Great opportunity with a variety of exhibitors from different industries.

It was well laid out and the variety of jobs was good.

A good event where you can get a good idea what is available to veterans in many different industries and locations.

Great event. Lots of great companies and agencies.

Variety of jobs for multiple opportunities.

No matter the size, these people make it worth going to.

Good opportunity.

The variety of employers and jobs available was excellent.

If for nothing else, go for the practice of talking with recruiters and getting the feel for how they talk, what they look for, and leveraging the in-person opportunity to make an impression and leap off the pages.

Well organized, lots of jobs, everyone was friendly, and it's an opportunity to network with other vets.

You really should try to attend.

The event was excellent.

If you do not go you are throwing money away. The vendors at this job fair want to hire us!

The variety of vendors/exhibitors represented plus smaller, targeted participant numbers allowed more intimate experience and positive conversations.
