I always see a great variety of employers and candidates.

Great event, very professional and great turn out.

I didn't see any improvement needed. Even with the poor weather, there was a steady number of candidates throughout the event.

This is always an amazing event. So many great vendors and the attendees are motivated and passionate about finding their next opportunity.

Great event!!!! Lots of traffic and a great venue. These events are very well organized here in Florida and always have a great turn out!!!!

I thought it was a very good event.

Good event and numerous employers, which provided lots of opportunities for candidates. It was well organized and the QR code technology was great!

Great turn out! RecruitMilitary has candidates that have the skill set and work ethic that would be beneficial to any employer.

Good communication, well organized, great candidates.

I really liked the QR Code aspect and the ease of exchanging applicant to employer information. I cannot think of any improvements.
