Event Feedback

EXHIBITOR TESTIMONIALS

Great event with amazing talent. The entire process was seamless and I am able to get the list of candidates in real time.

Good career fair to connect with veterans in regional locations.

I was impressed with this fair. It was well organized and had an amazing on site staffing presence. Booths were spaced appropriately and there were quality candidates.

Extremely well attended event with quality candidates. Staff was amazing as well.

Good event. Professionally administered and well done. Kudos to everyone who worked to make it a success.

Good networking building opportunity. The QR Code was great for me. The set up was nice as well.

This is a recurring job fair we attend. All experiences have been good.

Candidates are eager and ready to work! Very efficient set up, clear signage, appropriate set up for each vendor. Great flow of candidates throughout the day. Looking forward to the next event.

Great attendance and quality applicants.

It was a well run operation with good attendance. Very happy with the day.

Great way to expand your applicant pool.

The entire event was put together beautifully. It had a great amount of networking and candidates, which is always a plus! Super supportive and professional. Such a great event!

JOB SEEKER TESTIMONIALS

The fair is a great opportunity to show your face and provide a resume to a potential future employer.

It was worth it because the employers were willing to engage with us. The QR CODE was a very astute way of connecting with the companies.

Great way to connect with employers looking to hire veterans.

Go to these events. You never know what you may find.

I have shared how impressed I was with the meticulous organization and execution of this job fair. I particularly liked the QR code system and how easily, efficiently, and effectively things flowed resulting from this use of technology. It was easy to speak with employers and share information. This job fair was one of the most impressive ones that I have attended.

This is an excellent platform for veterans to have access to great companies with representatives who are very willing and open to hiring veterans.

Great opportunity for anyone seeking employment.

Attend!! Dress to impress!! Be prepared!! Follow the instructions of the event.

There are a lot of opportunities available.

Targeted to military vets, many of the presenters are prior/active military and they speak the same language.

A variety of employers for all skill levels.

Great information.
