EXHIBITOR TESTIMONIALS

A lot of good talent from all different job backgrounds! I liked the flow of traffic.

You need to attend this event if you are looking for quality candidates.

Well worth your investment.

It's a great way for veterans to have one-on-one interactions with companies that understand the value of having a veteran on its staff.

It is a very good community to reach very skilled & motivated veterans. I liked seeing so many companies trying to tap into the veteran pool.

If you are looking for quality candidates with real world experience in many adverse conditions, you will find that skill in our nation's veterans.

The event is always very well organized and the on-site support is fantastic.

Good turnout, quality candidates, QR easy to use, nice atmosphere & support.

It's smooth and effortless, and they make it a great event! It has proven one of the better hiring events we've participated in. QR codes great.

Very well organized and easy to navigate for both the applicant and the employer! Well done!

Event was amazing. An awesome event with many opportunities and connections.

JOB SEEKER TESTIMONIALS

It opens your eyes to what is out there and gives you an opportunity to network and get your name out there.

Excellent opportunities.

You're only cheating yourself by not going.

Come check out the companies that are ready to hire you!

Come prepared to interact with company representatives who were par excellent. Set aside sufficient time to interact accordingly.

Great opportunity to network with possibilities.

It hosted a good variety of employers.

You should check out this event. They have a lot of great people and amazing information to share with you about getting into the workforce.

It is fantastic.

Wide array of potential opportunities, job descriptions, and geographic locations.

Well organized. Many of the presenters were also veterans.

This is an awesome event where veterans are so welcomed by potential employers.
