Event Feedback

EXHIBITOR TESTIMONIALS

The event was perfect. The organizers were supportive and responsive when help was needed. Excellent event to support military members who are transitioning into the civilian sector.

Great quality candidates with good communication skills and work history. Certainly worth the time to attend.

It was very easy and laid out well. The QR code is very handy.

This was one of the most productive career fairs that we have attended in quite some time. Very good candidates with great experience. We will certainly be attending in the future.

Excellent venue and I always enjoy coming to it.

I enjoyed the whole event and the interactions with the people that attended.

I love that RecruitMilitary is in line w/technology, utilizing QR codes to upload candidate information as well as their ability to apply. Hosts were accommodating, friendly, and resolved any issues the employers may have had.

RecruitMilitary is a very professional and well-attended event for veteran-friendly employers.

The support staff was friendly and willing to help. Employers in attendance were ready to hire.

Highly motivated candidates with a great work ethic.

It was a great event as always. The Tampa Convention Center was a great space and a great location. No improvements to note at this time.

JOB SEEKER TESTIMONIALS

Go! They speak our language, regardless of the branch.

It is not only about jobs. There are other resources available like free training for certifications and support for starting your own business.

Organization and information regarding the event was spectacular.

This is where you need to be. There are a lot of opportunities to get firsthand knowledge about great jobs and you get the chance to network with the people who can get you in the door.

Thank you. It was a great experience and I got the help I needed.

This event was well worth it.

It is a good practice space for interviews and talking with an employer.

A great place to meet and mingle with a variety of different industries.

I always enjoy veteran / military based job fairs. They always provide a variety of different job opportunities. The different companies are so welcoming, open minded, and encouraging.

Great opportunities from companies hiring veterans.

This is a great event to network and find out about resources you may have not been aware of.

It's worth going. I have found multiple jobs.

This is one of the best job fairs around.

Fantastic opportunity to connect as you transition back to the civilian world.
