High quality candidates to choose from. The QR code scan made life easy to look at candidates' resumes, rate them, and then get back to the ones who would be a possible fit.

The event had a lot of talent.

It was a good and easy event -- good location, great participation from vendors and military personnel. I have zero complaints or suggestions. Thanks for hosting a great event!

The events are run professionally. The number of candidates looking for careers is generally good.

Talented candidates and good networking. Love the opportunity to meet with talented military personnel, so will always take the opportunity to attend career fairs and speak with candidates.

The event overall was very well organized and the quality of candidates was exceptional. It is always a pleasure working with our veterans.

This event is very beneficial. It is a great program and it helps a lot of service members, vets, and spouses.
